TWO CRIMES. ONE FROZEN ISLAND. A TIDE OF SECRETS WAITING TO SURFACE.

In the heart of a Maine winter, Pyke Island is rocked by two crimes in a single night: a woman is kidnapped and left unconscious in a summer cottage, and a Hollywood producer vanishes from his estate without a trace.

Drawn into the investigation, Del Corriveau must rely on her instincts and unexpected skills to understand what connects these two events, and why someone is desperate to keep the truth buried.

This revised edition of A Fickle Tide delivers a taut, atmospheric mystery full of small-town secrets, emotional depth, and coastal suspense.

Book one in the Pyke Island Mystery Series.

“A complex, tightly-woven story with subtle clues, sharp misdirection, exciting suspense and clever plot twists.”

—Bill Bushnell, Kennebec Journal

“A great mystery series, fast-paced, authentic.”

“A whodunit for whenever. Curl up with a hot drink and read Moe Claire.”

—Ellsworth American

Moe Moeller is the author (as Moe Claire) of the Pyke Island Mysteries set in Downeast Maine, in addition to short stories, poetry, and community theater plays. When not writing, she hikes, gardens, sails, enjoys summer and winter in Maine, and volunteers for several local non-profits.
