A Cat Called Q and the Magic Globe

A SNOW GLOBE. A MAGICAL REALM. A SANDWICH-LOVING CAT.

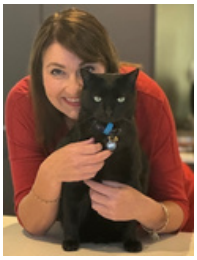

When ten-year-old Sheri finds a strange snow globe in a charity shop, she and her best friend Shawn are pulled into a vivid, crumbling world on the edge of collapse. Their guide is Q, a clever black cat with strong feelings about sandwiches. To get home, they must cross perilous seas, explore hidden caves, and stand up to Mallum, a villain whose magic is unraveling everything.

If readers enjoyed the enchanting adventure of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe or the love of nature in The Wild Robot, they'll be captivated by A Cat Called Q and the Magic Globe. This story weaves together friendship, bravery, and a touch of magic as young Sheri and Shawn navigate a world where loyalty is tested and wonders await at every turn.

"A beautiful book that transports you to a world full of magic and adventure."
—Natalie Kling, Children's and Youth Librarian

"Reading this beautiful book feels like shaking the magic globe and returning to your childhood."
—Dr. Koen Margodt, ethicist, Jane Goodall Institute Global Ethics Committee

Melody Horrill, an award-winning Australian journalist, author, and documentary producer, specializes in environmental issues. Her memoir, A Dolphin Called Jock, explores her healing connection with a wild dolphin, while her book, Sheltered, shares stories of rescue animals and their human saviors.
